St. Charles, IL – The Association of Nutrition & Foodservice Professionals (ANFP) celebrated Volunteer Appreciation Week September 30 - October 4, 2024.

Volunteer Appreciation Week celebrates the more than 270 dedicated volunteer leaders of ANFP who work hard to advance our mission and keep ANFP a thriving organization by offering their time and experience. Volunteers participate in boards, committees, task forces, and chapter leadership.

This year's Volunteer Appreciation Week festivities included a recognition thank you video from staff, special Leadership Happy Hour call, postcard, volunteer yearbook, and grand prize giveaway.

The week recognized the hard work ANFP volunteers do. The five-day celebration was a chance for volunteers to feel appreciated, and let them look back at all they have done for the organization.
